

Documentation - Group 2, Online Satirical News Articles

<article>

Container element for article

<header>

Container element for basic article information

<article_title>

Describes the content of the article; usually fragmented or whole sentences

<category>

Where the article can be found on the website. Categories are listed as sub-headers on website as well. Often same as real news sites (sports, world news, entertainment, etc.)

<date>

Date in which the article was published

<identification>

Identifies exactly which article it is

@volume

The number of years the publication has been released.

@issue

The amount of times the news source has been published that year.

<tags>

Sub-categories and keywords for the article (basketball, agriculture, crime, etc.)

<share>

Hyperlinks that give the option to share on a multitude of social media platforms

@facebook

Share on Facebook (Facebook logo often used as link)

@twitter

Share on Twitter (Twitter logo often used as link)

@email

Share via email (Mail image often used as link)

@other

Share on less common social media sites (Google+, Pinterest, etc.)

<body>

Container element for majority of the content

<image>

Image relating to the content of article

<location>

Articles always start with the city and state that the article is based in

<quote>

Surrounded by quotation marks, a grouping of words, ranging from phrases to multiples sentences.

<footer>

Container element for closing article information

<share>

Hyperlinks that give the option to share on a multitude of social media platforms

@facebook

Share on Facebook (Facebook logo often used as link)

@twitter

Share on Twitter (Twitter logo often used as link)

@email

Share via email (Mail image often used as link)

@other

Share on less common social media sites (Google+, Pinterest, etc.)

<related_links>

Hyperlinks to related articles from the same website